TELKOM'S RESPONDS TO KPPU'S RULING ON THE SUSPECTED SMS KARTEL

Jakarta, 24 Juni 2008 – Perusahaan Perseroan (Persero) PT Telekomunikasi Indonesia Tbk. ("TELKOM" or the "Company") hereby announces that the Business Competition Supervisory Commission ("KPPU") has issued a press release through its website (www.kppu.go.id) regarding its ruling on June 18, 2008 which states that six national telecommunications operators has breached Article 5 Law No.5/1999 relating to the suspected sms price fixing between the operators (kartel). As result of the breach, KPPU has imposed a fine to TELKOM in the amount of Rp.18 billion and Telkomsel in the amount of Rp 25 billion.

In general, TELKOM respects the legal processes which has been conducted by KPPU as an independent body for supervising fair competition in Indonesia. TELKOM will always be committed to comply with Good Corporate Governance practices.

As of this date, TELKOM has not received a formal verdict from KPPU. In accordance with the prevailing regulations, TELKOM has a legal option of submitting an appeal to the District Court within 14 days of it's acceptance of the verdict.
